Clipped Wings: The Rise and Fall of the Women Airforce Service Pilots (WASPS) of World War II. Within military hierarchies, the World War II pilot was projected as the most dashing and desirable of servicemen. During World War II, all branches of the military had women's auxiliaries. Only the Women Airforce Service Pilot (WASP) program, however,...

*Clipped Wings* is a history of the disbanding of the U.S. Army Air Force Women Airforce Service Pilots of World War II. Unfortunately, *Clipped Wings* is dull reading, academic in the bad sense, which obscures the truth in two or three places in an effort to emphasize the sexism that existed in the 1940's.
