Satans Child

6:66 Satan's Child has a mostly industrial metal sound. As with its predecessor Blackacidevil, several songs include effects-treated vocals. It was the first Danzig album to be produced using digital recording methods, as Glenn Danzig explained: "This record is the first time I've ever recorded my vocals digitally.

Satan's actual children are literally living, to this day among Yehovah's true Israelite people all around the world; masquerading as members of the Bride of Yahushuah. The wheat and the tares will continually throughout time grow and live together until the end of the age when the angels will separate them .
